II. The Answer and Defenses to the Complaint

A. Answering the Claims for Relief

On a separate page or pages, write a short and plain statement of the answer to the allegations in the complaint. Number the paragraphs. The answer should correspond to each paragraph in the complaint, with paragraph 1 of the answer corresponding to paragraph 1 of the complaint, etc. For each paragraph in the complaint, state whether: the defendant admits the allegations in that paragraph; denies the allegations; lacks sufficient knowledge to admit or deny the allegations; or admits certain allegations but denies, or lacks sufficient knowledge to admit or deny, the rest.

B. Presenting Defenses to the Claims for Relief

Write a short and plain statement identifying the defenses to the claims, using one or more of the following alternatives that apply.

1. The court does not have subject-matter jurisdiction over the claims because (briefly explain why there is no federal-question jurisdiction or diversity-of-citizenship jurisdiction; see the complaint form for more information)

2. The court does not have personal jurisdiction over the defendant because (briefly explain)

3. The venue where the court is located is improper for this case because (briefly explain)

4. The defendant was served but the process-the form of the summons-was insufficient because (briefly explain)

5. The manner of serving the defendant with the summons and complaint was insufficient because (briefly explain)

6. The complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted because (briefly explain why the facts alleged, even if true, are not enough to show the plaintiff's right to recover)

7. Another party (name) _____ needs to be joined (added) in the case. The reason is (briefly explain why joining another party is required)

Monday, October 23rd, 2017

1. I deny the allegations against me. I have never downloaded anything off the internet. I couldn't have downloaded anything in June 2017 because I haven't owned a computer in over 4 years now. I am the account holder for my household's internet service, but I am not the only user of the internet at this address. I pay for the internet, in exchange my roommates pay for other bills.

I am also not responsible for others' actions on the internet. I only use the internet to watch Hulu & Netflix and to play video games on my Playstation 3. I can assure you that I don't own a computer, so I couldn't have downloaded anything.

2. I believe that there is no direct evidence against me. Therefore, I will be defending myself against these allegations because I haven't done anything wrong and couldn't have downloaded the afore mentioned movies. Due to the fact that I haven't even owned a computer in over 4 years. So I couldn't have downloaded anything in June 2017.

If something was downloaded over my internet service, I can assure you that I wasn't aware of this and a further investigation needs to take place. I demand that all allegations are dropped immediately because I am innocent.

D. Asserting Claims Against the Plaintiff (Counterclaim) or Against Another Defendant (Cross-Claim)

For either a counterclaim against the plaintiff or a cross-claim against another defendant, state briefly the facts showing why the defendant asserting the counterclaim or cross-claim is entitled to the damages or other relief sought. Do not make legal arguments. State how each opposing party was involved and what each did that caused the defendant harm or violated the defendant's rights, including the dates and places of that involvement or conduct. If more than one counterclaim or cross-claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

1. The defendant has the following claim against the plaintiff (specify the claim and explain it; include a further statement of jurisdiction, if needed):

2. The defendant has the following claim against one or more of the other defendants (specify the claim and explain it; include a further statement of jurisdiction, if needed):

3. State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the party asserting a counterclaim or cross-claim asks the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive or exemplary damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons that are alleged to entitle the party to actual or punitive money damages.
